

TAH Benefits

- free, high quality training with scholars, professors and museum professionals
- professional development points
 - 10.0 PDPs for March 13, 2010 workshop with a complete project
 - 7 PDPs without a project
 - 37.5 PDPs for US Government and Economics Institute
 - 37.5 PDPs for US Government and Labor Institute
 - 10.0 PDPs for November 13, 2010 workshop with a complete project
 - 7 PDPs without a project
- graduate credits available at your expense through Framingham State
- assistance in developing history and interdisciplinary curricula
- teacher stipends:
 - $200 for attending and completing the expectations of each spring and fall workshop
 - $625 for attending and completing the expectations of each summer week-long institute
- up to $1650 to each teacher who participates and completes the exceptions of the four 2010 TAH programs
- free American history-related materials